Section 10 Questions

بواسطة الطالب : ليث عمرو

1. What is the primary purpose of a recommendation report?

   a) To entertain the reader with creative writing

   b) To help managers select among alternatives

   c) To replace the need for management decisions

   d) To summarize unrelated data without analysis

2. Which phase must be completed BEFORE writing a recommendation report?

   a) Decision-making

   b) Data gathering and analysis

   c) Publishing the report

   d) Skipping the study phase

3. What is a feasibility study?

   a) A final decision made by managers

   b) A staff activity analyzing alternatives and drawing conclusions

   c) A fictional story about organizational goals

   d) A replacement for the recommendation report

4. Which section is typically NOT part of a recommendation report outline?

   a) Introduction

   b) Description of Alternatives

   c) Fictional Case Studies

   d) Conclusion

Section 10 Questions

بواسطة الطالب : ليث عمرو

5. What is the correct sequence of phases in recommendation reporting?

a) Decision → Research → Writing

b) Research → Writing → Decision

c) Writing → Research → Decision

d) Decision → Writing → Research

6. What is the role of a recommendation report in decision-making?

a) It directly implements the chosen alternative

b) It provides analyzed data and a recommendation for managers to consider

c) It replaces the need for managerial judgment

d) It is used only for archival purposes

7. Which of the following is a key component of the "Introduction" section in a recommendation report?

a) Detailed financial projections

b) Definition of the problem and scope

c) Names of all employees involved

d) A summary of unrelated past projects

Section 10 Questions

بواسطة الطالب : ليث عمرو

8. When should the "Recommendation" section of the report be written?

a) Before gathering any data

b) After analyzing the data and drawing conclusions

c) Only if the manager requests it

d) It is optional and can be skipped

9. In the "Presentation and Interpretation of Data" section, what should be included?

a) Only raw data without analysis

b) Explanations of criteria and comparisons of alternatives

c) Personal opinions of the report writer

d) A list of unrelated references

10. A recommendation report is the same as a feasibility study.

a) True b) False

11. The report phase should begin before completing data analysis.

a) True b) False

12. Management decisions are made DURING the writing of the report.

a) True b) False

13. The introduction of a recommendation report includes criteria and alternatives.

a) True b) False

14. Footnotes are required in all recommendation reports.

a) True b) False

15. The "Conclusion" section of a recommendation report should introduce new data not previously discussed.

a) True b) False

16. A recommendation report must always include at least five alternatives to be valid.

a) True b) False

17. The decision-making phase can overlap with the report-writing phase to save time.

a) True b) False

18. The "Description of Alternatives" section should omit any weaknesses of the options.

a) True b) False

19. Recommendation reports are exclusively used in corporate settings.

a) True b) False